Stainless steel double-bowl sink with dishwasher compartment on the right, 200×60×85h cm

Description

Why buy it?

This double-bowl stainless steel sink with a dedicated dishwasher compartment is a practical and functional solution designed to simplify and optimise daily kitchen tasks, whether in professional or domestic settings. The two bowls, the drainer and the dedicated dishwasher compartment make it extremely versatile, ideal for those seeking durability, organisation and maximum hygiene in a single unit.

Key features

- Stainless steel construction
  Made entirely from stainless steel, a corrosion-resistant, easy-to-clean and hygienic material. It is the ideal choice for catering establishments and professional kitchens, where durability and ease of maintenance are essential.
- Spacious double sink
  The two basins allow you to carry out multiple tasks simultaneously, such as washing up and preparing food. This ensures greater efficiency and tidiness, particularly during periods of peak workload.
- Handy drainer
  The integrated draining rack provides a convenient space for placing plates, pans or utensils, allowing them to dry naturally whilst keeping the worktop clear and organised.
- Lower shelf
  The shelf located beneath the worktop provides additional space for storing washing-up liquid, kitchen equipment or utensils, ensuring tidiness and practicality.
- Dishwasher compartment
  The dedicated dishwasher compartment makes this sink even more practical, allowing for seamless integration and optimising kitchen space. An ideal solution for those looking for a single unit that combines hand washing and machine washing.
